JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE
PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

You will be identified by your juror number, which is stamped at the upper right hand corner of each page of this questionnaire. DO NOT WRITE YOUR NAME ON ANY PAGE EXCEPT PAGE 2 (JUROR INFORMATION SHEET). Write only on the front pages of this questionnaire. Do not write anything on the reverse side of this document.

Upon your oath or affirmation, you must give true and complete answers to all questions. These questions are not meant to ask unnecessarily about personal matters. Rather, these questions will help the Court determine whether you can be fair and impartial in deciding this case and will also provide information about you as a juror to help the parties select a jury. Remember there are no “right” or “wrong” answers; there are only truthful answers. Part of the selection process depends on your ability and promise to follow the law as it is explained by the Court. Thus, some of the questions include descriptions of legal principles and ask whether you can conscientiously follow them.

THE COURT INSTRUCTS YOU NOT TO DISCUSS THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS WITH FELLOW JURORS. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOUR ANSWERS BE YOUR OWN INDIVIDUAL ANSWERS. Further, the Court instructs you not to discuss anything about the case with anyone: not the defendants, the lawyers, your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. Please try to write as legibly as possible. It is very important that the answers be yours and yours alone.

SUMMARY OF THE CHARGES

This case, United States v. Francis Guerra, et al., is a criminal case in which the defendants have been charged with federal crimes. The trial of this case is scheduled to begin on approximately June 4, 2012, and is expected to take approximately 8 to 10 weeks. The defendants are charged in an indictment with criminal offenses. Specifically, the indictment in this case alleges that the defendants are members and associates of the Colombo organized crime family of La Cosa Nostra, and that they committed a variety of crimes as part of that criminal enterprise, including, variously, racketeering conspiracy, murder, conspiracy to murder, extortion, loansharking, wire fraud, union fraud and embezzlement. An indictment listing the criminal charges against a defendant is simply the document used to advise a defendant of the accusations against him. The indictment is not evidence.

You must evaluate the evidence against each defendant separately. The fact that these defendants are being tried together does not mean that the evidence against each of them is the same. Our law simply permits defendants to be tried together in order to save judicial resources. The law presumes all defendants are innocent. The defendants have pleaded not guilty to all charges in the Indictment. It is the government that has the burden of proof under our system of law. The prosecution must come forward with proof beyond a reasonable doubt that a defendant has committed the charged crimes before a defendant can be found guilty. The defendants have no obligation to produce any evidence or do anything else at trial. This is because the law presumes a defendant to be innocent of the charges brought against him.

Remember that under the law an indictment is not evidence. It is merely an accusation, and a defendant is presumed to be innocent of the charges described in an indictment unless and until the government establishes a defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. If you are selected as a juror in this case, it will be your duty to determine whether, based solely on the evidence presented at trial, the government has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendants are guilty of the crimes charged.

You will notice that each defendant has his own lawyer and that the lawyers will confer with one another and discuss certain matters. This behavior is both appropriate and encouraged as it saves everyone, including you, a lot of time.

DO NOT make any attempt to learn about this matter from sources outside of the courtroom, such as the news media or the internet. If in fact you inadvertently stumble upon some media coverage or other information, please report this to the Court. Please do everything you can to avoid and ignore any information you do not hear in this courtroom. If you are selected to serve on the jury, you will judge this case solely on the evidence presented at trial.

QUESTIONNAIRE AND JURY SELECTION

The purpose of this questionnaire is to assist the court and the parties in selecting a jury of individuals that can be fair and impartial. The Court is following the practice used in other cases in the federal courts of keeping the identities of the jurors confidential. The Court uses this procedure because this case is likely to attract attention in the media and among the public. Anonymity will assure that the jury will not be exposed to such prying and to opinions, commentaries and inquiries which might impair its ability to decide the case solely upon the evidence presented in court and upon the law as I instruct. It is important to ensure that the jury will in no way be influenced by the public, by the members of the media and their articles and reports. I wish to emphasize that I am taking these measures to protect your rights of privacy and to assist you in discharging your responsibility as jurors fairly and impartially.

To ensure that your rights of privacy will be respected, only the last page of the attached questionnaire asks you to state your name and other identifying information. That page will be detached from the questionnaire when you have completed it and will be locked securely in the office of the Clerk of the Court. That page will not be available to anyone, including the presiding Judge, the parties to the case and the lawyers. Should special circumstances or other good cause require, and provided that the prior approval of the presiding Judge is obtained, that information may be made available to such person or persons as the presiding Judge deems necessary. On the remaining pages of the questionnaire, you are instructed not to give names or addresses or any information that will permit anyone, even the presiding Judge, to identify you.

PART I: HARDSHIP

Jury selection will begin on May 30, 2012, and the trial is expected to begin on June 4, 2012. Once testimony begins we anticipate the case should last between eight to ten weeks. Trial will be in session, generally speaking, four days per week from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. To be on the safe side, therefore, we are requiring that the jurors who serve on this case must be available through the end of August 2012. The trial will recess for national and major religious holidays. Jurors will receive a printed schedule of trial dates upon final selection of the jury.

If you are selected as a juror, you will be required to be present for the taking of testimony for as long as the case lasts. You will not be sequestered, meaning you will go home every day after court.

The Court views service on a jury in a federal criminal trial to be one of the highest duties a citizen owes to the United States. Mere inconvenience or the usual financial hardships of jury service will not be sufficient to excuse a prospective juror.

If yes, please explain the nature of the relationship, without identifying the person, reputed to have such ties.

59. Will you be able to consider evidence about racketeering, murder, conspiracy to murder, extortion, loansharking and other crimes fairly and impartially and in accordance with the instructions of the Court?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

60. Have you or anyone you know had experience borrowing money from a loanshark?

Yes _____ No _____

61. Has anyone you have known been murdered?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes: (a) What was that person's relationship to you? _____

(b) Were all persons responsible for the murder prosecuted? _____

(c) Do you believe the outcome was fair? If not, why not? _____

62. Do you have any bias, sympathy, or prejudice with reference to the United States government that would make it difficult for you to render a fair and impartial judgment based solely on the evidence presented at trial?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

63. (a) Do you have any religious, philosophical, moral or other belief that might make you unable to render a "guilty" verdict?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

- (b) Do you have any religious, philosophical, moral or other belief that might make you unable to render a “not guilty” verdict?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

64. Is there any reason that you might fail to fairly and impartially evaluate all the evidence in this case without fear or favor toward either the government or the defendant?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

65. Have you or a family member or close friend ever been falsely accused of a crime?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain the circumstances: _____

66. Is there any other matter that you should call to the court’s attention that may have any bearing on your qualifications as a juror or that may affect your ability to render an impartial verdict based solely on the evidence and the court’s instructions on the law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please describe: _____

67. You may hear testimony from or about the people listed on Attachment A during the trial. Please turn to Attachment A at the end of this packet and circle the names of any person that you know or have any connection with.

68. You may hear testimony about locations listed on Attachment B during the trial. Please turn to Attachment B at the end of this packet and circle the names of any locations that you know about, have any connection with, or have visited.

69. Do you know of any reason why you could not fairly and impartially decide, in accordance with your oath and based solely on the evidence, whether the government has proven the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

PART IV: LEGAL PRINCIPLES
(Questions 70 through 82)

Part IV explains some of the fundamental legal principles on which the Court will give instructions during the trial. If you believe you cannot follow these principles, you are duty bound to let the Court know now.

70. (a) Every defendant is presumed innocent and cannot be convicted unless the jury, unanimously and based solely on the evidence in the case, decides that his guilt has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt. The burden of proving guilt rests entirely with the government. It never shifts to the defendant at any time. The defendant has no burden of proof at all.

Would you have any difficulty following these rules?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

- (b) Will you accept and apply this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

- (c) Under the law, a defendant need not testify. If a defendant does not testify, the jury may not consider that fact in any way in reaching a decision as to whether a defendant is guilty or not guilty. Would you have any difficulty following this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

71. The defendants are charged with illegal activity carried out as part of an enterprise called the Colombo crime family. Is there anything about the nature of these charges that would interfere with your ability to decide this case based solely on the evidence related to the specific charges alleged in the Indictment and nothing more, meaning whether the government has proved the defendants to be guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

72. An indictment itself is not evidence. It merely describes the charges made against the defendant. It is an accusation. It may not be considered by you as any evidence of the defendants' guilt. Are you able to follow this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

73. The defendants are charged with a number of separate crimes. Under the law, you must consider each alleged crime separately. You must find the defendant not guilty of each of the alleged crimes you are considering, unless the evidence that has been presented in court proves him guilty of each alleged crime beyond a reasonable doubt.

Would you have any difficulty following these rules?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

74. A defendant has no obligation to testify. Should a defendant decide to testify, that does not shift the burden of proof to the defendant or diminish the obligation of the government to prove the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The government always carries this burden of proof in a criminal trial. Will you have any difficulty following this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

75. Several witnesses in this case will be law enforcement officers.

- (a) Do you hold any beliefs or opinions that would prevent you from evaluating the testimony of a law enforcement officer fairly and impartially?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

- (b) A law enforcement witness's testimony is not to be given any more or less credence than any other witness's testimony. Would you be able to follow the Court's instructions in this regard?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

76. You may hear that law enforcement officers secretly conducted visual, photographic and video surveillance during the investigation of this case. These investigative techniques are lawful. Do you have any feelings about the use of secret visual surveillance that might affect your ability to consider such evidence fairly?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

77. Some of the evidence in this trial may come from searches performed by law enforcement officers. These searches were lawful. Do you have any feelings about searches conducted by law enforcement officers that would make it difficult for you to consider such evidence fairly?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

78. You may hear evidence that a witness or witnesses in this case acted in an undercover capacity at the direction of the FBI and secretly recorded conversations with others. This is lawful. Do you have any feelings about undercover investigations conducted by law enforcement officers that would make it difficult for you to consider such evidence fairly?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

79. Some government witnesses may testify that they participated in serious crimes, including murder. These witnesses, who may be referred to during trial as cooperating witnesses, may have lengthy criminal histories, may have pleaded guilty to crimes and may be testifying pursuant to agreements with the government in hopes that their own sentences will be reduced. Use of these witnesses is lawful.

(a) Do you hold any beliefs or opinions that would affect your ability to evaluate testimony from such witnesses fairly and impartially?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

(b) Would you be able and willing to fairly and impartially assess the testimony of such a witness, in accordance with the Court's instructions?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

- (c) It is the law that the testimony of a single witness, even a cooperating witness, can be sufficient to convict a defendant of a charged crime, if the jury finds that the testimony of that witness establishes proof beyond a reasonable doubt.

Do you have any opinion or belief about the law or cooperating witnesses that would prevent you from applying this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

80. Under the law, the facts are for the jury to determine and the law is for the Judge to determine. You are required to accept the law as the Judge explains it to you even if you do not like the law or disagree with it, and you must determine the facts according to those instructions.

Would you have any difficulty following the Judge's instructions?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

81. Under the law, the question of punishment, if any, should not enter your deliberations on guilt or innocence. Would you have any difficulty following this rule?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

82. Under the law, emotions such as sympathy, bias and prejudice must not enter into the deliberations of the jurors as to whether the guilt of the defendant has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt. Would you have any difficulty following this rule?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

PART VII: CONCLUSION
(Questions 83 through 85)

83. Is there anything about the nature of the charges or the facts of the case as they have been explained to you thus far that would affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in this case?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

84. Is there any other matter that you should call to the Court's attention that may have any bearing on your qualifications as a juror or that may affect your ability to render an impartial verdict based solely on the evidence and the Court's instructions on the law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please describe: _____

85. Is there any matter you would prefer to discuss privately with the Judge?

Yes _____ No _____
